Yoe Awaits '72 Homecoming

Friday night is Homecoming night for Yoe High School, with a homecoming queen to be crowned during halftime activities.

The home game with Hearne will start at 8 p.m.

Thursday night the traditional bonfire will be lighted, with a Flame King and Queen named at that activity.

Candidates for Homecoming Queen are Debby Coker, senior; Melissa Delony, sophomore; Joyce Burnett, freshman; and Sandy Smith, junior.

Flame royalty includes seniors Joe Trdy and Marilyn Willy, freshmen Donald Hanel and Cynthia Hurtik, juniors Craig Friemel and Becky Marek, and sophomores Mike Mueck and Paula Perkins.

Hearne is not as large as many of the teams we have played, but they are still rather large. They have some very fast boys in the backfield with Fred Owens at 9.9 and Pat Owens at 10.2 in the 100-yd. dash.

The Eagles use the Houston veer offense which they execute very well.

They use three different defenses and the main problem Friday night will be getting our offense to recognize the different defenses. The Yoe-men have had spirited workouts this week and are looking forward to a tough contest.

"I feel Hearne is tougher than their record indicates," said Coach Cauley. "We don't have any injuries from the Rosebud-Lott game but some of the guys are slowed by colds and sinus problems. We expect everyone to be ready Friday night."

If nothing else, a few people around here have been saying for years:

"Don't ever believe one person at the right time and with the right idea is unable to influence events. It is just not so."

IS HE DINGGY?

People who like to sing might appreciate this anecdote. Those who don't might wonder.

It was late January and the small Missouri town was snowed in except for cleared, but freezing highways. It was on a state highway linking Jefferson City and Springfield, and a stupid time to be hitchhiking off a main road. But the map said it was shorter that way and that's the road I took. The map, of course, said nothing about length in hours.

You can imagine by late afternoon of a grey, snow-flocked day little traffic was moving. Hitchhikers, even identifiable college - student hitchhikers, would have little luck.

Standing frosty in front of a gas station in this town, I started singing, to myself at first, then louder, since no one but an infrequent passing car or a misguided sparrow might hear.

But from the gas station, it must have looked decidedly different to the station operator, who had little as I did to do.

Closed in his station office and unable to hear, he apparently became fascinated by my stamping of feet to keep warm and my mouth moving in some song, now forgotten.

This must have gone on some time, because the local traffic just wasn't picking up hitchhikers or driving into this guy's gas station.

So he was watching. And I was stamping and singing, like some isolated dimwit, in his view, who didn't know enough to come in out of the snow.

He finally made his move. And I discovered there had been a silent audience, unaware the singing, though probably bad, wasn't some babble.

"Okay, fella," he said, or something similar, more direct. "Move on. We don't need any college nuts around here." (There was a sticker on the suitcase).

"Of course," I said. "You really don't think I kept 'all that traffic' from driving in, do you?"

I moved on. He all but picked up the suitcase and handed it to me.

Just as well. I caught a ride not much later down the road. And I made it to Springfield just after dark, believe me, silent and unsung. And I wondered how bad it might have been if that guy actually had heard.

PTA TO MEET

The Cameron PTA will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday (tonight) at Ben Milam School. The program will be on the proposed school bond issue, and a question and answer period will be featured.

Friday Deadline For Registration

All voters who wish to vote in the November general election must be registered by October 7. In Milam County, the deadline for registration is Friday, October 6 as the tax office will not be open for registration on Saturday.

Voters who have a certificate issued since October 1971 do not need to register again.

A person must be registered 30 days before any election, according to state law.

If a voter has lost his registration certificate or has changed address since the certificate was issued, he should notify the tax office at the courthouse.

Rattler Is Hazard For Fire Fighter

Fighting a grass fire became doubly hazardous for a Cameron volunteer fireman Sunday about 11:30 a.m. when he narrowly missed stepping on a huge rattler.

The fire department was called to a grass fire on the railroad right of way between Cameron and Ad Hall. John David Thompson, one of the volunteers, was stepping backwards when another fireman spotted the rattler snake in the grass behind him, and called out a warning.

The firemen killed the snake and carried it to town after the fire was put out.

Local Sailor Dies In Ship Explosion

An explosion in a gun turret of the USS Newport News, the nation's largest gun cruiser Saturday took the life of 19 men, including a sailor from Maysfield.

Gunners Mate Charles W. Clinard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Clinard of Maysfield, was the only Texan killed in the explosion.

United Fund Agency...

Girl Scout Council Needs Help

(Another in a series about local agencies that benefit from Cameron United Fund. A drive for $9,000 is currently underway.)

The Lone Star Girl Scout Council serves over 7,500 girls in 18 counties in south central Texas with Austin as the headquarters city. There are about 130 Girl Scout members in Cameron.

The Council's operations are financed largely through participation in 14 United Funds and 12 Girl Scout Fund drives in non-UF towns. Each community is asked to allocate or raise its fair share of the council budget.

A Council board of directors, in consultation with local volunteer adults in each community, develops the plan of work and budget for the council.

The purpose of Girl Scouting is to inspire girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, patriotism, and service so that they may become happy and resourceful citizens.

Girl Scout membership is representative of all economic, cultural, and social groups. The need for Girl Scouting is not based on economic level. All girls need and want the opportunity to belong to a group and to be part of this kind of informal, educational, recreational

The cruiser was operating just below the demilitarized zone in an area some 13 miles north-northeast of Quang Tri City, firing against North Vietnamese positions, the Navy said. The explosion occurred at about 1 a.m. Saigon time.

Ten sailors were also injured in the explosion.

The cruiser left Vietnam waters for the Philippines, where the bodies of the dead men were to be shipped to the States.

Charles, 21, was born in Belton while his parents were living in Moody. He was reared in Milam County and attended Cameron schools. He enlisted in the Navy and had served more than four years.

Funeral is pending at Green Funeral Home of Cameron. Burial will be in the Marlow Cemetery.

Surviving are his parents; four sisters, Mrs. Tommy (Darlene) Kirby of Belton, Mrs. Billy (Lou) McCall of Cameron, Mrs. Lewis (Barbara) Bulls and Mrs. Joe (Hester) Murrow, both of Temple; six brothers, LeRoy and Ronnie Clinard of Silsbee, Gilbert and Hulon Clinard of Temple, Raymond Clinard of Cameron and Lonnie Clinard of Austin; and his grandmother, Mrs. Mittie Pritchard of Cameron.

Perrin Installed By Academy Of Family Physicians

Dr. Douglas Perrin of Cameron was installed a Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians at convocation and inaugural ceremonies last week in New York City.

The degree of Fellow recognizes outstanding member efforts in the area of continuing education. To qualify a member must either have passed the certifying examination in family practice administered by the American Board of Family Practice, or have completed 600 hours of Academy approved continuing education since becoming an active member.

Dr. J. Jerome Wildgen, Academy president, said physicians honored with the degree of Fellow "typify the high standard of family medicine the Academy seeks to instill in all practicing family physicians."

The inaugural ceremony at New York Coliseum was held during the annual convention and scientific assembly of the Academy.

Council Airs Short Agenda

The city council took care of a short agenda Tuesday evening with mayor pro tem Robert Clark conducting the meeting in the absence of Mayor Gene Blake.

A. W. McCullin, executive director of the city's urban renewal program, gave a report of current status of the project, noting that all planned demolition has been completed and sites are being cleaned off.

He said surveyors and engineers would be here next week to begin work on street grades, however, no street work will be started until after Christmas.

McCullin added that rehab work would continue in several locations, including Ideal Hatchery. Work will begin soon on remodeling of the Eixman building and The Cameron Herald building, which will be combined into one location for the newspaper.

Council heard the second reading of a mobile home ordinance, and approved reports from department heads. Works Supt. James Hale was authorized to remove three trees off city property and to discuss trash hauling problems with Royal Seating and Walled Lake Doors.

Council also authorized the mayor to sign contract forms for the city's storm drainage program, using $100,000 from the Economic Development Agency and $25,000 of city funds.

Paris Tree To Cite Cameronites

The name of Cameron and Milam County will be displayed in Paris, France, following planting of a tree in the Paris Gardens on September 25.

The tree was planted in memory of Jean and Edd Hause, who served their country in Paris during World War I. The tree will bear their names and homeland, "Cameron, Texas, Milam County, USA."

The tree was donated by Sidney Hause Goodbar, daughter of Jean Hause and niece of Edd Hause. Mrs. Goodbar notified The Herald of the tree-planting ceremony.

Japan Follows U. S. Lead...

It may be an aside in the presidential campaign now underway, but the Nixon visit to Peking has brought Mainland China full circle.

Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka, of Japan, has completed negotiations with Mainland China, precipitating a break of diplomatic relations with Taiwan.

Since the Nixon visit and UN recognition of Mainland Red China, the Chinese people in world view have now secured their position as a viable, continental power, free of historic Kuomintang influence through the aging Chiang Kai-Shek.

It has been said that President Nixon would travel the high road during this campaign. His recent meeting with Tanaka prior to Tanaka's rapprochement with Mainland China was a signal of this continuing role.

The polls show a spread anywhere from 22 percent (Senator McGovern's) to 34 percent (Gallup and Harris). This suggests the incumbent will continue the high road until late October when he will go for final support in key states and a "mandate vote" either for GOP control of one or more houses of Congress or leverage against continued Democratic domination.

He is continuing through influence with Tanaka. And the resulting new China-Japan relationship is an endorsement of the Nixon rapprochement both in China and Russia. And both parties agree these efforts have been bi-partisan. And voters apparently agree this is what should be done in today's world.

Washington communicators are saying they don't understand why such incidents as Watergate, where indictments have been returned, have not roused more national interest. It would seem the President, to Senator McGovern's chagrin, has raised some 60 percent or more of U. S. eyes to external problems which have so much to do with our internal problems. And Americans apparently believe incidents like Watergate or whatever are really nothing new in American power politics.

The President has realized Americans want security at home, prosperity at home, but that they still want to see world leadership synonymous with American leadership.

The Japanese development is another proof this country, however torn by the Vietnam issue, is facing international as well as domestic realities. And we are being followed.

A Way Of Saying 'Thanks'...

Work will soon begin on Herald expansion into the adjacent building for offices for business, advertising, circulation and stationery.

Thanks to the spirit of growth in the Cameron-Milam area, we now join the numerous operations in Cameron modernizing, expanding or building anew.

Plans here have been in process for more than a year. It takes time to work them out, sometime, as numerous ones will attest in all that is going on in this area.

We've had the good fortune to move to a fourth newspaper press in 12 years, adapt computerization, pictorial and offset technology, broaden coverage into three counties, convert to twice-weekly publication beside efforts in analysis of and recommendation for what is needed for modern Milam County. Numerous alumni from your Herald have done well professionally in journalism.

This is a story of your belief in the area, in yourselves and finally in your Herald, enabling us to bring off innovation and growth.

For those through recent years who show confidence in us, we now return so many favors with broader facilities to serve an area which has decided the latter-20th Century is not so bad after all.

Bomb Suppression Blanket Newest Security Product

By Leonard Santorelli
NEW YORK

What would you do if you found a live bomb planted in a waste-paper basket at your office or factory?

The answer, according to a security firm, is a "bomb suppression blanket." You simply toss the blanket, made of the same material as a bullet-proof vest, over the bomb and it protects against 90 per cent of the blast from a home-made bomb.

The core of the blanket, 18 layers of ballistic nylon, absorbs the fragments from the blast of any bomb that can be smuggled into a building. The manufacturers claim success on pipe-bombs, hand grenades, and similar devices.

The company, Pinkertons, is selling the four foot-square blanket to stores, office buildings, banks, theaters, schools and hospitals to meet the growing threat from the political fanatic or the criminal.

The three letter-bombs which turned up recently in the central post office here focused attention on an undercurrent of violence that permeates life in the United States. In 1971, an estimated 200,000 bomb threats were made and in the last 18 months, there have been over 5,000 bombings.

In New York City, which has a population of eight million, murders jumped from 1,117 in 1970 to 1,468 in 1971, rape from 2,141 to 2,415 and robberies from 74,000 to 87,000.

To combat this flourishing criminal activity a multi-billion dollar private security industry has burgeoned. One unofficial estimate put its total cost at four billion dollars -- not surprising in a country where cargo theft alone costs every American five dollars a year.

The new business has produced a welter of equipment ranging from computers that control security for complete factory complexes to tamper-proof screws.

Among them, is a gadget to guard against the hijacking of trucks that seems to come straight from a James Bond movie. A small radio transmitter which emits an electronic pulse is placed on the truck, aircraft, or boat carrying a valuable shipment.

A receiver, that fits into the small suitcase, gives a constant reading of the transmitters position and would enable pursuers of a hijacked vehicle to track its position.

Another device can eliminate human error in checking the identity of visitors at security-conscious institutions such as banks and nuclear power stations -- by verifying hand geometry.

The caller inserts an identification card into the unit and places his hand on a screen. The machine gives an almost instant verification on whether the hand characteristics match the coded information on the card.

"I Just Killed My..."

Poking fun at the law, a cartoon shows a man rushing into the police station to confess a murder. But the desk sergeant frantically waves him into silence.

"You don't have to say a word," the sergeant explains, "until you have seen a lawyer." This may be good cartooning. But it is bad law. The sergeant has no obligation to interrupt a confession that is offered voluntarily. Furthermore, the man's statement may be used against him in court.

Consider an actual case: A motorcycle officer sired a motorist to the curb and asked to see his driver's license and registration slip. After a moment's hesitation, the man shrugged. "Well, I guess you've got me," he said. "I stole the car."

Brought to trial later for car theft, he claimed that his confession could not be used against him because the officer had failed to warn him of his rights.

But the court found nothing wrong with the confession, since the man had made it of his own free will.

What kind of pressures do taint a confession as "involuntary" -- hence inadmissible in court? Obvious examples are the use of physical violence or mental intimidation. Such methods run afoul of the constitutional privilege against self-incrimination.

But a confession may also be ruled out because it was obtained by the unfair use of promises or threats.

In one case, a man under questioning about a robbery was informed that his wife -- also being held -- would be released if he would confess he had committed the crime.

He did confess. But this time, his confession was held to be inadmissible in court. The judge said a confession obtained by offering such a powerful temptation had one great drawback in the eyes of the law:

It was all too likely to be false.

OLD

Dear editor:

Anybody with a television set, and that includes just about everybody in the U. S. -- why I know one family with a sense of first things first who let the city turn its water off for failure to pay its bill but kept up its T.V. payments right on time, which may or may not prove that cleanliness is next to what people are always saying it is, although you'll have to admit all those soap commercials sure are being wasted on them -- at any rate, if you have a television set and watch it on week-ends you're bound to have learned something about football.

But the television people don't believe it.

At every game they have two or three people whose job is to keep up a constant line of chatter telling you what you've already seen. One guy will even attempt to tell you what he thinks is going to happen on the next play, and the fact he's wrong most of the time doesn't slow him down.

Now I'll tell you, if you were sitting in the stadium watching the game and some bird in front of you turned around on every play and commented on it, explaining that was an off-tackle run or an end-around and the ball carrier has been in the league for 12 years and attended college at South Dakota where he broke the all-time record for catching deflected passes, you'd either get up and move or pull his hat down over his ears, or, under present conditions, un-braid his hair.

Why will a television network pay somebody to tell me the officials are going to take a measurement when plain as day I can see them bringing on the chain? And when they explain that if any part of the ball touches the marker it's a first down, I begin to understand their estimate of the public's intelligence. It goes a long way to explaining some of the shows they run when football's not on. Why, this year they've even ruined the Westerns. After seeing three of the new issue of Gunsmoke I now refer to it as Talcum Powder.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Navy Opens Companies

Local Navy Recruiters are now accepting immediate applications from young men interested in joining one of three Dallas Cowboy's recruit companies being formed from the North Texas area.

The three North Texas area recruit companies will be sworn in just prior to the Dallas Cowboys - San Francisco 49ers football game, Thanksgiving Day, November 23, at Texas Stadium.

The three companies will carry the Dallas Cowboy name and Texas State Flag through recruit training at San Diego, Orlando, and Great Lakes.

Members of the three companies will leave Dallas November 23, for the boot camp of their choice on a first come, first served, basis.

Further, the new recruits will also be home on leave for the Christmas holidays.

A guaranteed Navy school will follow Recruit Training for those qualifying with high enough test scores.

Interested young men should contact Chief Petty Officer Bob Williams Or Petty Officer Charles Ben-night at 817-773-1711 ext 270 collect or U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, 2 South 1st Street, Temple, Texas 76501.

Marcos Of Philippines Is Decorated War Hero

MANILA Ferdinand Marcos, the only man to have been voted president of the Philippines twice, is also his nation's most decorated war hero. But in the free-for-all and often violent Filipino political scene, he has faced charges of murder, forgery, land-grabbing and bribery. Since a massive wave of popularity swept the handsome Marcos back to a second four-year term in 1969, he has found himself fighting for his political survival -- and that of his Nationalist Party.

Prices have kept rising, corruption, smuggling and unrest in the countryside have remained unchecked. There have been violent clashes between minority Moslems and Christians in the south of the Philippine Island chain and a growing communist insurgency.

Even the visit here in 1970 of Pope Paul was marred by an assassination attempt on the pontiff.

But fighting from a position of siege is nothing new to the 55-year-old president, who was the most decorated Filipino hero for his underground efforts against the Japanese during World War Two. As late as 1961, surgeons removed a bullet from his body.

He is helped in this effort by his wife Imelda, a former Miss Manila beauty queen who sings duets with him on the platform during campaign tours -- and who is often tipped to succeed her husband as president in 1973.

In August, 1971, Marcos announced he was taking special powers to detain without trial people suspected of rebellious activities. He said then that the communists were trying to mount a rebellion, but the move caused restiveness among the Filipinos, who are largely Roman Catholic.

His popularity began to wane from the high point it had reached in 1969 when he was re-elected -- after a mud-slinging and bloody campaign -- with a majority of two million.

Dramatically, the day after his inauguration, he announced he was donating all his personal fortune to the Filipino people as an example of self-denial.

Son of an educator-politician, he was schooled until the age of eight by his mother, the daughter of a rich landowner, in his birthplace -- Sarra, Luzon, largest of the 7,000 Philippine Islands.

Moving to Manila, young Marcos acquired a reputation for a prodigious memory as well as excellence at sport.

He attained the highest marks in law at the University of the Philippines -- a feat made even more remarkable since his last year as a law student was spent defending charges of murdering a political opponent of his father.

He was at first found guilty. But the decision was reversed after an appeal that he argued himself before the nation's supreme court.

He established a reputation as a brilliant trial lawyer after the war. In 1949 when his country had been independent for three years, he gained a seat in congress as a liberal party candidate.

Ten years later, he entered the senate, becoming floor leader and then senate president, and he introduced a record number of bills on land reform, civil liberties and trade unionism.

But he left the Liberal Party in 1964, after failing several times to get its nomination as president or vice-president, and joined the Nationalists -- whose standard-bearer he became.

He fought a bitter presidential campaign in 1965 against Liberal Party incumbent Diosdado Macapagal, winning comfortably after beating back charges of forgery, bribery and land-grabbing.

A program for rice self-sufficiency, including subsidies to farmers, proved a great vote-winner for the president, who speaks English, Spanish, Tagalog and his native Ilocano.

But a continually listless economy and lingering restiveness has plagued his second term, leading up to the martial law measures announced

4-H Club Activities

By Christine Laws
County Extension Agent

A NEW DAY - A NEW WAY - is the theme for National 4-H Club Week, also the theme for the 4-H Year of 1972-73. The week of October 1-7 was proclaimed National 4-H Club Week by President Nixon.

4-H is something other than the typical cooking, sewing, and meat animal projects. Today, a 4-H project can be anything you want it to be from a study of citizenship to assisting underprivileged children develop a play ground in their neighborhood.

4-H'ers across the nation are concerned about the 70's and what they can do about it. 4-H is bridging the gap between the old and the new.

We still have traditional projects and club unit ideas, but we have expanded. Now day's a 4-H'er might have a project in Dog Care and Training and be more interested in Dog Shows, than in Livestock shows.

A Clothing project could involve home sewing, but many times it is aimed more at the idea of a study of fashions and consumer buying. Livestock projects still head the list as one of the most popular areas, but even this has changed. The emphasis is more on what the youngster gains from this project, than what prize the animal won at which major show.

Woman's Lib and Men's Lib have also invaded the 4-H program. So called traditional projects in the area of home economics are no longer just for girls. Today, boys are designing and making some of their own clothes and giving the girls a run for their money in the area of the kitchen. Girls on the other hand are sometimes just as interested as boys or more so in the study of such projects as Veterinary Science and Automotive.

How can you join 4-H? Anyone between the ages of 6-19 can participate on a county level. It is open to anyone in Milam County, regardless of race, ethnic background, geographic location, or economic status.

Bond Sales Near Goal

United States Savings Bond sales in Milam County during the month of August totaled $58,932, according to County Bond Chairman Henry Siebman. Sales for the eight-month period were $500,806 for 70 percent of the 1972 goal of $710,000. Texas sales during the month amounted to $17,819,733, while the January-August sales totaled $142,833,527 for 72 percent of the 1972 goal of $197.5

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

Army Worms Invade Lawns

By Bill McCutchen
Milam County
Extension Agent

A little fellow with a big appetite - adequately describes the fall armyworm. Thus far, armyworms have been more of a problem in lawns and gardens than in crops or pastures.

Monroe Fuchs said that armyworms seemed to take a particular liking to the TIF Dwarf bermuda in his front yard; Bonnie Cobb is having trouble picking armyworms off plants in her organic garden; and I solved my lawn armyworm problem inorganically with Sevin.

Look for the fall army-worm to become more of a problem now that scattered showers have rejuvenated suffering pastures and lawns and have germinated small grain plantings.

Keep a close eye on your small grain fields as armyworms can destroy stands quickly.

PECAN REFERENDUM

All Milam County pecan producers, including farm owners or tenants and sharecroppers, or home owners, are eligible to vote in the upcoming pecan referendum provided they produced 300 pounds of pecans during the last three years.

The maximum rate and basis of the assessment if passed has been set at 50 cents for 100 pounds of pecans. The actual rate to be set by the Pecan board in all likelihood will be less than this amount.

Check off funds will be used for research education, promotion, and disease and insect control designed to encourage production, marketing and use of Texas pecans.

Some producers will receive ballots in the mail in early October. If you don't receive a copy in the mail they will be available at the County Extension office. All must be postmarked not later than October 23.

PECAN SHOW REMINDER

Anton Anderle, Milam County Pecan Committee Chairman asked that I remind all pecan producers to save a quart of pecans from their favorite tree or trees for the 1972 Pecan show. There will be classes for any and all pecan varieties including natives. The 1972 show is tentatively scheduled for November 18 in Rockdale.

Cotton Report

Sample receipts decreased this past week due to unfavorable harvesting weather in most of the area serviced by the Austin Cotton Classing Office, reports J. B. Russ, Officer in Charge. According to the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service, harvesting in the Brazos River Bottom area is approximately 50 percent complete; and the Crockett and Waco-Temple areas are about 65 percent gathered.

Quality statistics for the week ending September 29 show little change from the previous week. The micronaire readings continue to be good with 87 percent of the cotton reading in the desirable range of 3.5 - 4.9. Ten percent read 5.0 and above.

The Pressley fiber strength tests conducted by the USDA's Fiber Laboratory at College Station shows that the average strength remained the same as a week ago. Twenty-six percent of the cotton tested had a breaking strength of 75-79,000 pounds per square inch, 45 percent 80 - 84,000 pounds per square inch and about 26 percent was stronger than 85,000 pounds per square inch.

Cotton markets continue to be fairly inactive. Eighteen to 22.00 cents per pound was paid for most grades offered with staple lengths of staple 30 through staple 32.

SYMBOLIC EGG

Ethiopian Christians consider ostrich eggs symbolic of both the Resurrection and the Virgin birth. National Geographic says. It was once thought that the ostrich left its eggs in the sand to be hatched by the sun-representing the Creator.

Fall Harvest Underway... Pecan Referendum Set... Milk Production Shows Slight Increase... Citrus Blackfly and Cattle Fever Tick Make Appearances.

With fall season approaching, Texas farmers are in the midst of cotton and corn harvest and are beginning pecan and citrus harvest.

Although yields are turning out better than expected for cotton, prices and sales of cotton are at a virtual standstill. For the most part, producers are apparently holding onto their awaiting the outcome of the present pricing situation. Cotton prices are now at or near loan levels.

For the state as a whole, cotton harvest is more than 25 percent complete. Corn harvest is more than 50 percent complete, grain sorghum harvest statewide is also more than half finished. Harvest of peanuts in the Blacklands and Cross Timbers areas is now underway. Rice harvest is virtually complete.

In South Texas, pecan harvest is getting started with an anticipated record crop of 70,000,000 pounds in store. The 1972-73 citrus crop continues to make good progress. Harvest of some early oranges has been reported. Grapefruit harvest should begin in early October.

CONTROL and eradication center has been located at Alice in Jim Wells County.

The infected area includes most of Jim Wells County, about half of Duval County and a small area of McMullen and Live Oak counties. Individual premises are under a quarantine established by the Texas Animal Health Commission in Dimmit, Nueces, Leon, and Kent counties.

Livestock producers who suspect their animals may have cattle fever ticks should contact the Texas Animal Health Commission at Austin or the tick eradication center at Alice.

MILK production in Texas during August was two percent above that of a year ago. Milk production in the state amounted to 278,000,000 pounds. Milk production per cow averaged 785 pounds, which is 15 pounds above a year earlier.

Nationwide, milk production is also two percent more than last year.

A NEW outbreak of the citrus blackfly has resulted in an enlargement of the quarantine in South Texas. Texas Department of Agriculture inspectors as well as federal inspectors are stepping up efforts to control the pest. Infested plants are being sprayed. The new outbreak is in an area near Los Fresnos in Cameron County.

The citrus blackfly has the potential of wiping out the important Rio Grande Valley citrus industry.

TSCRA Hears Reports On Current Tide Of Diseases

FORT WORTH

Texas ranchers, besieged by outbreaks of screwworms, fire ants, fever ticks and scabies, met in Midland for the quarterly directors meeting of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association (TSCRA) to discuss their plight and work toward solutions.

The meeting, attended by several hundred ranchers across Texas, listened to health experts from the Texas Animal Health Commission and the U. S. Department of Agriculture explain what actions as individuals and as an association they could take to stem the costly tide of diseases sweeping the cattle industry.

State Rep. Joe Hubenok of Rosenberg presented a graphic report on the imported fire ant epidemic now plaguing the Texas Gulf Coast.

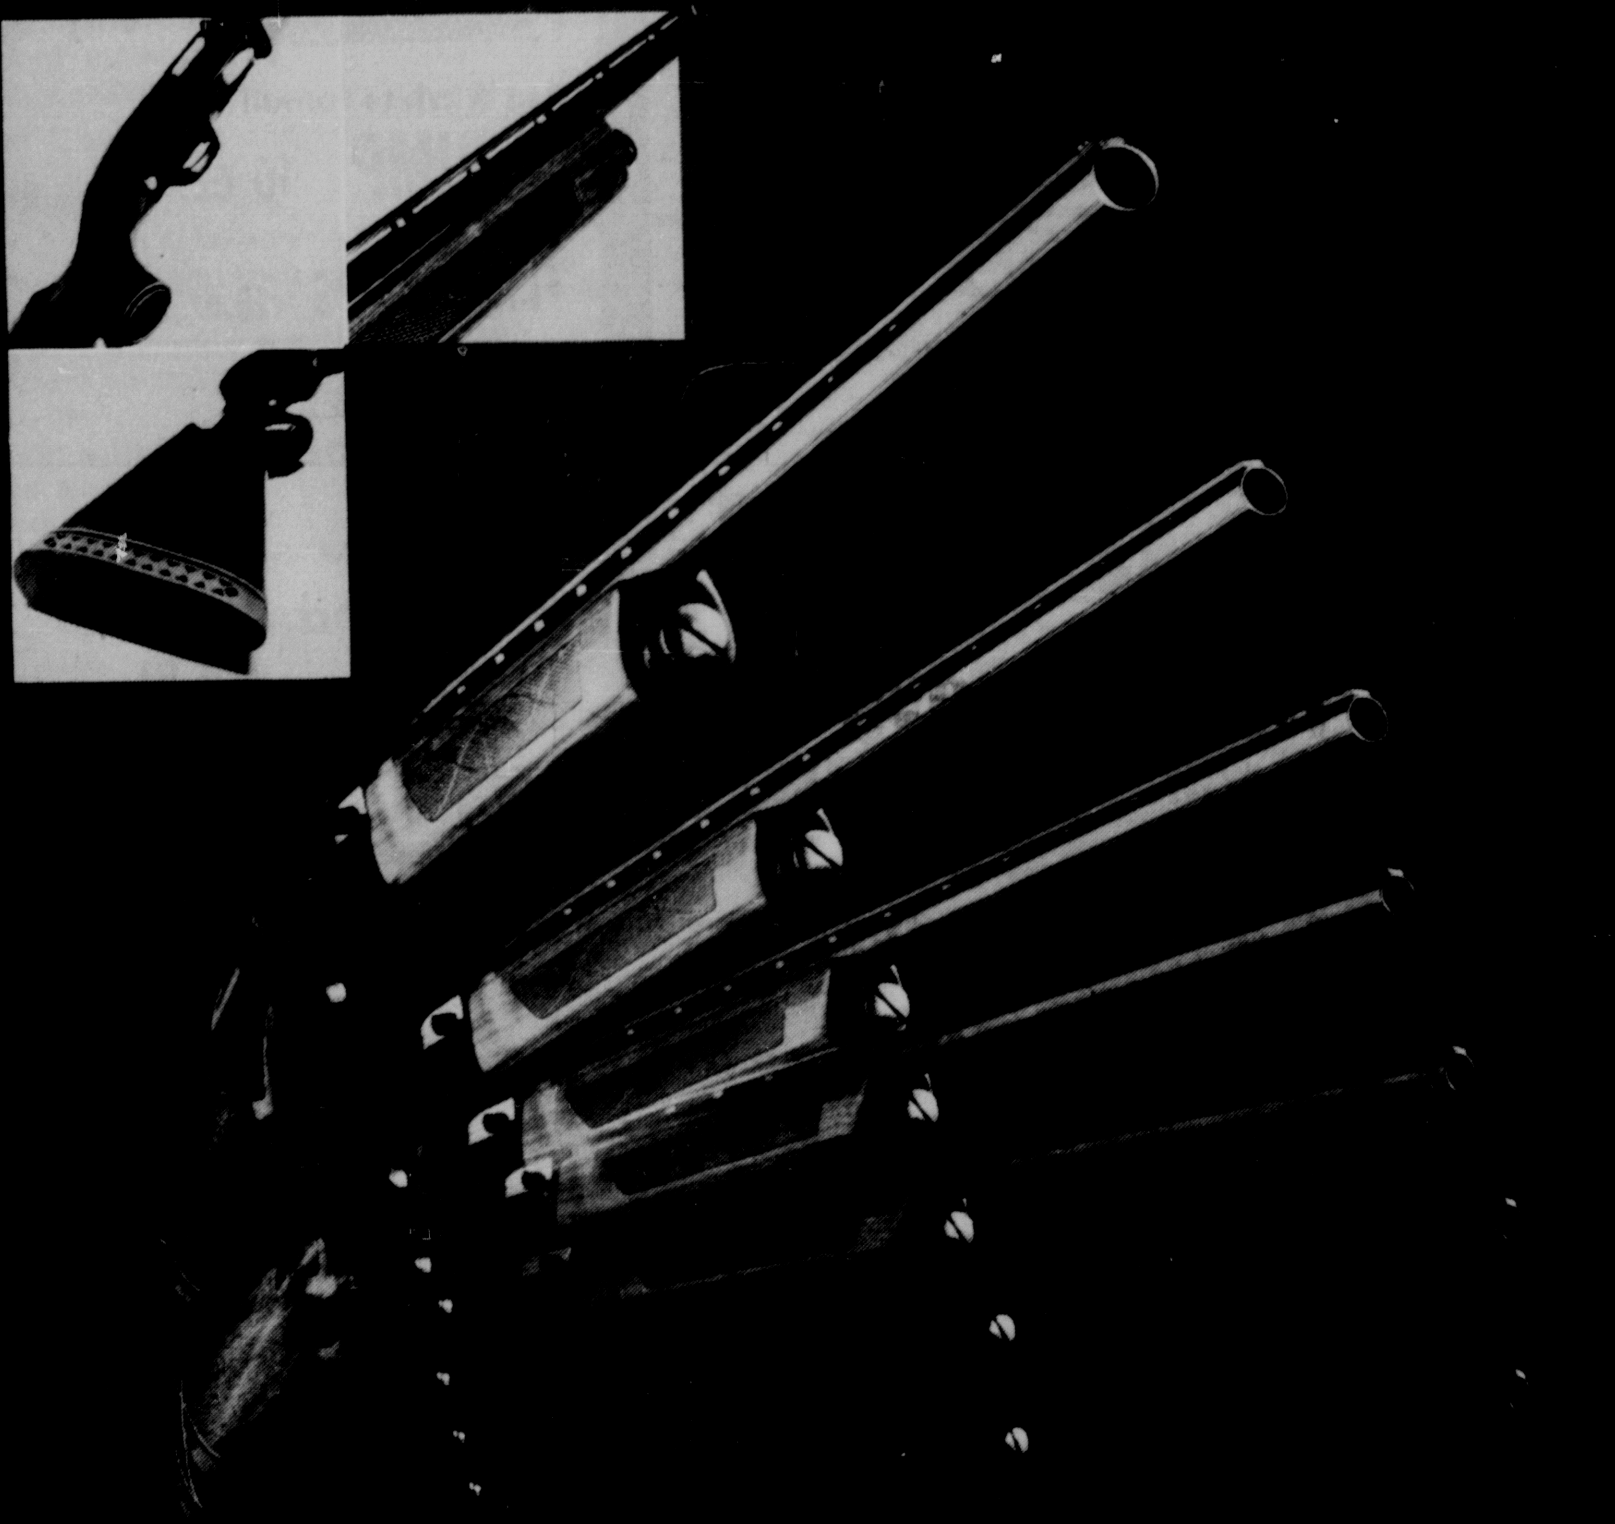

The screwworm outbreak, so bad this year that it has gained national attention, was revived by John Armstrong, chairman of the animal health committee. Armstrong told the cattlemen that USDA Assistant Secretary Richard E. Lyng personally assured him that some $2 million in additional funds will be made available so that the Screwworm Eradication Project at Mission, Texas, can continue to operate. The Mission plant was forced to cutback production of sterile flies earlier this year due to limited funds.

The cattlemen were also told that the TAHC, with help from the USDA, will be dipping more than 100,000 head of cattle a week at the height of the shipping season, in order to control the scabies problem. A large area in the Texas Panhandle is now under a quarantine restricting cattle movements because of the scabies infestations.

Regarding brucellosis, the ranchers were told that Texas is on the verge of becoming "modified - certified." In order to achieve certified - free status, all cattle that are shipped from the state must be tested brucellosis-free for one year. Adjacent states are now working toward this "certified - free" status, indicating an infection rate of less than 1/10 of one per cent.

With mixed emotions the directors heard that while experts feel the Texas fever tick outbreak, which brought a quarantine in four South Texas counties, is under control, they can expect the quarantine to be in effect from two to five years. Tick-infested cattle have been traced to far away as California.

CAC Sets Weekend Festival

Festival '72 will be held Saturday, October 7 from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday, October 8 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Bend O' The River Ranch on Interstate 35 between Temple and Belton.

Sponsored by the Cultural Activities Center of Temple, FESTIVAL '72 will be centered around a juried art show and sale but will also include actual art demonstrations, creative children's activities, various foods, and live entertainment.

Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. All proceeds will go to the Cultural Activities Center.

Fifty artists were chosen by a selection committee to display their works at the art fair.

Festival '72 could be subtitled "The Artist at Work" since over thirty of the fifty artists will be working at their trade during the art fair. Special demonstrations will be presented by James Brock making wax models for bronze sculpture and Forrest Gist doing an aluminum casting on Saturday and raku firing with Dr. Robert Rynearson on Sunday. Lonnie Edwards of Salado will be working at the pottery wheel, and Eddy Rynearson will demonstrate the process of silk screening.

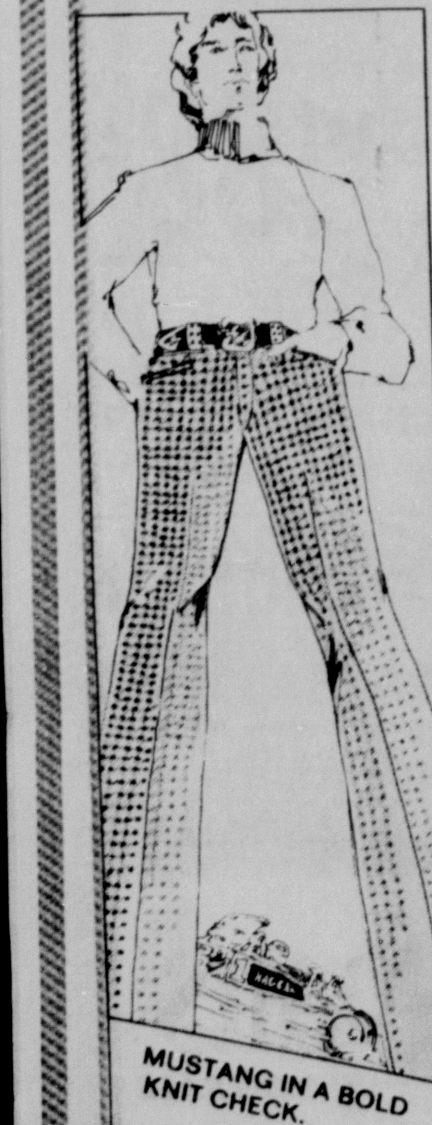

Other artists will be making jewelry, wood sculpture, stone sculpture, sand-cast candles, macrame, wooden puzzles, metalwork with both grinder and scetylene torch.

Turkey Heads Food Lists

Turkey might head lists for the supermarket this week as the new crop marketings are up nine per cent from a year ago.

According to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, heavy supplies of turkeys will result in special prices from time to time.

Also in the poultry section of stores chickens are hard to beat considering versatility and economy.

Home Wedding Unites Couple

Melanie Jame McClaren became the bride of Mr. John Brook Reed at a high-noon wedding Saturday, September 30. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Douglas Beggs, pastor of the Alamo Heights Baptist Church of Midland, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max McClaren, 1302 East 16th Street, Country Club Addition, Cameron. Mr. and Mrs. Herrell E. Reed, 3118 Shady Lane Drive, Temple, are parents of the groom.

The altar was flanked by baskets of white fuji mums with white and lavender streamers against a background of colonial drapes.

The bride, approaching the altar on the arm of her father, wore a floor length candlelight empire gown of Shiffley English lace with a mandarin neckline and bell sleeves accented with matching belt, bow and streamers. A white net veil was arched with white half-pearls. She carried a nosegay of white daisies, fuchsia and lavender mums and pink roses.

Miss Madeline McClaren of Bryan, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length dress of lavender English satin, carrying a three-stem bouquet of pink roses.

Harlon W. Reed of Dallas, served his brother as best man.

The mother of the bride wore a pink cotton dacron knit dress with a pink corsage. The groom's mother wore a slipper satin gown with a white carnation corsage.

The reception table, covered with an embossed white antique linen cloth, was centered with a two-tiered cake topped with two white satin wedding bells. Mrs. Peggy Beggs presided at the silver service and Mrs. Harlon Reed served the cake.

The bride attended Durham's Business College in Austin and Temple Junior College and is presently employed by the Waco Optical Company. The groom is a student at the Texas State Technical Institute, Waco.

After a wedding trip to Dallas and north Texas, the couple will reside at 3515 Apartment C, Tennyson Arms, Waco, Texas.

MRS. JOHN BROOK REED

Personal Mention

The T. F. Criswell family was home over the weekend to celebrate their mother's birthday. On hand were Lt. Thomas F. Criswell Jr. and family of San Antonio, the family of Mr. and Mrs. Pike Castles of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dale and family of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Criswell and sons of Houston, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Criswell and children of Fort Worth.

The Charles Bradys have enjoyed a two week vacation trip through the southern states with stops at Tennessee and Florida to visit relatives and friends.

Sunday visitors in the home of Mrs. Lillian York were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Blackmon and Mrs. Carolyn Randall and Renee all of Bryan. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie West and baby of Buckholts, Mr. and Mrs. Ossie Shaw and family of Cameron and R. L. York of Houston. They celebrated the birthday of Mrs. York's daughter, Lillian York.

Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Perrin have returned from a two week stay in New York City where Dr. Perrin attended a meeting of the American Academy of Family Physicians.

BAND SWEETHEART Cathy Collins received the traditional bouquet of red roses Friday night although heavy rains moved the half-time ceremonies from the football field to the band hall. Miss Collins, a senior at Yoe High, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins.

Mail Order Business Booms

The "wish book" is alive and well in suburbia.

The mail-order catalogue has survived kerosene-lamp days when it shared with the family Bible the place of honor in farmhouse parlors. Instead of selling horse collars and button hooks, modern catalogues offer everything from ancient Chinese jade to whole Maine lobsters.

Sears, Roebuck and Montgomery Ward still are going strong, but they have several thousand smaller competitors. In recent years, an explosion in the mail-order business has boosted annual sales to some $45 billion, the National Geographic Society says.

GENUINE HONKING GEESE

The modern mail-order customer may live near a huge shopping center, but he prefers the convenience and variety of catalogue ordering. He can buy rare books, folding message tables, gadgets to mold hamburgers or trim dog hair, Hungarian salami, honking geese, and so on and on.

Though the products change, some things stay the same.

A popular joke 60 years ago told of the man who wrote a mail-order house: "Stop shipment on that baby carriage I've been waiting for. Substitute shotgun and plug of tobacco -- our boy is growing up."

In 1968, an Arizona man ordered two suits by mail from an agent for a Hong Kong tailor. In 1972 he still was waiting for the suits.

The entire industry will be honored, appropriately enough, with a commemorative stamp to be issued on September 27 in Chicago where 100 years ago Aaron Montgomery Ward founded the first modern mail-order house.

Ward's first catalogue was a single sheet listing about a hundred items. His first sale was to a small-town postmaster.

Sears originated in 1886 when Richard W. Sears, a railroad station agent at North Redwood, Minnesota, began selling watches on the side. He moved to Chicago, hired Alvah C. Roebuck as repairman, and issued his first catalogue in 1888.

WONDROUS WARES

Rural families had been limited to the meager stocks of country stores, and they were delighted with the wondrous assortment in the wish books: 99-cent brown derbies, glass eyes for horses, feather bangs for ladies with thin hair, magic lanterns, dozens of patent medicines, butter churns, celluloid collars. . . .

Buggies alone took up 22 pages in the 1896 Sears catalogue and lingered there until 1933.

With such a vast assortment, shoppers were bound to be disappointed now and then. One farmer's wife ordered a pair of decoy ducks, then supposedly complained: "I've cooked them and cooked them, but they're still tough, so I'm sending them back."

In farm homes, the arrival of a new catalogue was an event, and old volumes never were thrown away.

A strong bond grew between the farmers and their friends in Chicago. A Georgia politician often reminded his constituents that they had "no friends except Jesus Christ, Sears, Roebuck, and me."

Sen. Tower Names Steering Committee

U. S. Sen. John Tower announced the appointment of nine citizens to the Milam County Steering Committee of Texans for Tower. Named as chairman was E. A. Perrin of Cameron.

Named to the committee were: Henry W. Abel of San Gabriel, Mrs. George Clark of Cameron, Edwin Lehman of Buckholts, James Luckey of Rockdale, Mrs. Jerry Matula of Cameron, Dr. and Mrs. John T. Richards of Rockdale, John A. Smith of Cameron, Niley Smith of Cameron and Ted Westerman of Thorndale.

Africa Is WSCS Topic

A special study on Africa will begin Monday, October 9, for the First United Methodist Church WSCS with Miss Christine Laws as study leader.

Titled "Africa - The Emerging Continent," the three part study will be held in the Fellowship Hall at 4 p.m. October 9, 16 and 23. Mrs. Hugo Linke of Thorndale will be guest speaker for the final session.

BPW Club Meets

The Business and Professional Women's Club met Monday night at the clubhouse. Hostesses were Ms. Diddle Payne and Ms. Willie Falkner. Mrs. Walter Lucas gave the opening prayer.

Mrs. Falkner, president, conducted a short business session and asked all who could, to attend a seminar given by the New Braunfels B&PW Club on October 15. The Seminar will be on Area Women's Responsibilities. The District meeting will be held in Copperas Cove on October 21.

Murray-go-Round

By Tom Murray

HOGS, FROGS IN BIG ONE!
Ike was President, Ford was selling a spiffy new auto - the Edsel, Richard Nixon was Vice-President, Tricia was 12, Julie was 10 and only girls rolled their hair.

The year was 1959. Frank Broyles, Arkansas' intense, brilliant and young new football coach screamed, "Freddie! Freddie! Get Freddie over here!" Putting an arm around his 5-8, 160-pound field-goal kicker, Freddie Akers, Broyles said, "If we don't get this first down, we've got to kick it - time is running out." Seconds later, Akers pumped in a 35-yard field-goal and the Razorbacks escaped with a 3-0 victory over TCU at Little Rock.

And, TCU has not defeated Arkansas since. Saturday, at 7:30 p.m., Broyles - now one of the SWC's All-time great coaches - sends his Razorbacks after a 14th consecutive victory over the Horned Frogs at Fort Worth.

Joe Ferguson, the Splendid Splinter whom Arkansas Rabbits expect to Golden Arm the Arkies to Broyles' first outright SWC Championship since 1965, was but an eight-year old Tad back there in '59 when the Hogs began their Glory Run. He will be called upon Saturday to work his miracles in perhaps the most crucial game of Broyles' Arkansas reign.

For, on the basis of their victories over Big Ten Indiana and Arlington, you get the impression the Jim Pittman - Billy Tohill TCU Reclamation Project may be farther along than most would have thought in less than two years.

Can Arkansas roll again at Cowtown? Or, will Kent Marshall, Mike Luttrell, Ronnie Webb, Gary Whitman, and Company turn off what to Frog lovers has become an awful nightmare?

TIME'S MOVING ON!

Can you believe you are coming up on the fifth week-end of the 1972 college football season? . . . Glad to discover the latest unique discipline for poor football performance. If you are Oiler Coach Bill Peterson, you cut off their post-game beer. Reminds one of the time Abe Martin said he was cracking down on his TCU football crowd. "We're gonna get a little tougher," Abe said. "There'll be no more poker playing in the dressing room or on the bus to the game."

Well, now, if you could trust comparative scores you could get a good line on the relative strength of several SWC teams this week-end. Baylor hosts the Miami team Texas sloped past 23-10. Rice entertains, if that is a good word, the LSU team which rolled over the Aggies, 42-17. Houston plays the Virginia Tech team SMU slapped and Tech invites in Tulsa, the sockeye of both the Cougars and Arkansas. . . . Trust you realize Alvin's Nolan Ryan, the Fastballing right-hander, has joined Walter (Big Train) Johnson and Bullet Bob Feller among only five men in major league history to strike out over 300 men in one season. Ryan is 18-15 for the current Cal Angels.

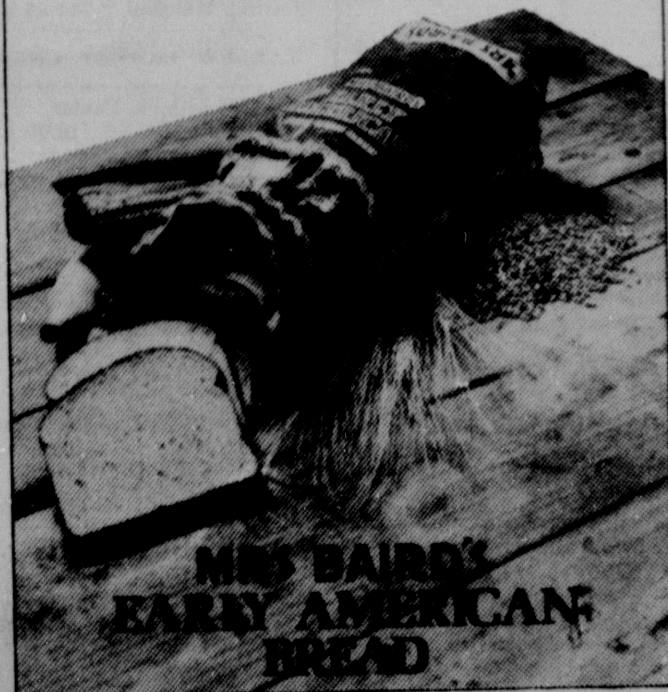

Speed Races Up For Grabs

There are two events remaining on the 1972 schedule for the Texas World Speedway. Coming up on Sunday, October 8 will be the Royle Triton ARCA 300 followed by the Texas 500 on Sunday, November 12. Both events are expected to be two of the most competitive races of the 1972 season.

The Royal Triton ARCA 300 will actually be the first race of the 1973 season for ARCA and everyone will be trying to get an edge on the point standings for the new season. Along with over $30,000 up for grabs this will be an all out battle from start to finish.

Obituaries

Gaines Kretschmar

Mrs. Lula White Gaines, 94, formerly of Milam County died Friday in a Waco nursing home after a long illness.

Funeral was held at 3 p.m. Sunday at Little River Baptist Church, the Rev. A. A. Brapcher officiating. Burial was in Little River Cemetery.

Surviving is one son, Onie B. Owens of Houston.

Green Funeral Home was in charge.

Palibearers were Carl Black, V. T. White, Dock Thweatt, John Ward, Lavert McKinney, and Bailey Jones.

Burgess

John Harvey Burgess, 63, of Rockdale died Thursday in a Houston hospital. He had been in failing health for several years.

Funeral was held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Phillips and Luckey Funeral Home, the Rev. D. D. Simpson officiating. Burial was in Harmony Cemetery near Rockdale.

Mr. Burgess was born in Falls County and lived in Milam County most of his life. He was a retired farmer.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. John Jenkins and Mrs. J. C. Rawls, both of Rockdale.

Goodwin

Mrs. Georgia Goodwin, 84, resident of 1406 N. Central St., died in a local hospital Saturday afternoon. She had been in declining health for several years.

Funeral service was held at 2 p.m. Monday in the chapel of Green Funeral Home in Cameron, ministers Cato Shearer and Jim Yates officiating. Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Jim Fuson of Cameron; two sons, Sherman Goodwin of Fort Worth and E. J. Goodwin of Manor; one sister, Miss Ella Payne of Cameron; six grandchildren and a number of great grandchildren.

Palibearers were Rex Frazier, Lavert McKinney, O. L. Baldridge, Bentley Dodson, Narvie Caperton, Coleman Duncum, Grady Allen and Dock Thweatt.

Sotero

Mrs. Marie Sotero, 83, of Cameron died in a local hospital Tuesday morning. She was born Dec. 8, 1888 at San Jose, Mexico and had lived in Cameron for the past 70 years.

Funeral service was held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church, Rev. Jimmy Greenwell officiating. Burial was in St. Monica Cemetery.

Surviving are one son, Carlos of Temple; two daughters, Josephine S. Cortes of Lometa and Edubiquez S. Jimenez of Cameron; three sisters, Juanita Rodriguez of Fort Worth and Elina Coronado of Temple; Virginia Jimenez of Fort Worth; eight grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Marek - Burns - Laywell Funeral Home was in charge.

State Arts, Crafts Fair Set For May

Over twenty-five hundred Texas artists and craftsmen have just received application forms for participation in the second annual Texas State Arts & Crafts Fair.

Sponsored by the Texas Tourist Development Agency, the Texas fair will be held on the campus of Schreiner Institute, Kerrville, on May 25-28.

Fair Director, Phil Davis, estimates that at least 1200 applications will be submitted. "The selection committee will have a difficult task in picking only 200 craftsmen from so many applicants. Even so, we are anxious to hear from any Texas artist or craftsman who might like to be considered because we do not yet have the names of many talented Texans. We are continually seeking new talent for the Texas fair in an effort to build its already fine reputation for quality and diversity", Davis said.

In addition to the Texas State Arts & Crafts Fair, the second Kerrville Folk Festival will take place during the same period. Texas' top names in folk music will perform in the city auditorium each evening, May 24-27, 1973. Together, the two events promise an exciting "Texas Weekend" for visitors.

Information on both events may be obtained by contacting the Texas Tourist Development Agency, Box 12008, Capitol Station, Austin 78711.

MINERALS NEEDED

The demand for primary minerals is expected to increase fourfold by the year 2000. The United States then will need 7.5 billion tons of iron ore, 1.5 billion tons of aluminum ore, 1 billion tons of phosphate ore, and 100 million tons of copper metal.

Buckholts

By Mrs. Edwin Gandy

There was a singing at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon from 2 till 4 p.m.

The homecoming football game for the Badgers was a victory. The Buckholts Badgers played Aquilla here Saturday night. There was a large crowd to turn out for the supper and the game.

The graduating class of 1963 held their homecoming this year. Those to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Marc Gersbach and children of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kleypas and family from Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Weston Robertson and son of Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Inge Jr. and family of Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. John Roy Zajicek and Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCall and Robert.

Visiting in the home of Mrs. Orba Arnold on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lake of Temple and Mrs. Lois Lake and children from Waco.

Jeffery Beckhusen of Austin was home over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beckhusen.

Mrs. Annie Lou Obermiller, who works in Austin, was at her country home over the weekend.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Svetlik Sr. over the weekend were their children, Mr. and Mrs. U. D. Adams and sons from Austin, and L. A. Svetlik Jr. from Fort Worth.

Mrs. Jim Matthews moved to Rosebud this week where she will now make her home.

Mystery Man Worth $2500 At State Fair

The last of the big spenders will visit the State Fair of Texas again this year. Mr. CAP, the mystery man whose identity is worth $2,500 or more, returns to Dallas for the 16 day fair, Oct. 7-22.

The brainchild of the Colgate - Palmolive Company, Mr. CAP was a focal point of excitement at last year's State Fair. According to contest rules, Mr. CAP will stroll through Fair Park and the immediate vicinity until someone, with label or box-top in hand, asks the magic question: "Are you Mr. CAP?"

If recognized on the first day, Mr. CAP is worth $2,500. The prize money increases by $100 for each day that he remains unidentified. Daily clues will be provided on radio station KLIF. When Mr. CAP is found, the contest begins again with a new Mr. CAP.

An additional $2,500 will be awarded at a drawing in the Cotton Bowl at 6:15 p.m. on October 22. First prize will be $1,000; second, $750; third, $500; and fourth, $250. Labels, box-tops or hand-drawn facsimiles, deposited in special boxes located in and around Fair Park during the run of the fair, are eligible for the drawing.

COME TO THE DAZZLING STATE FAIR

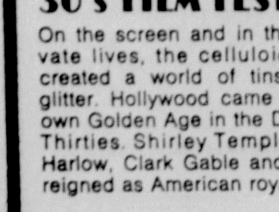

"NO, NO, NANETTE"
The current Broadway hit, "No, No, Nanette," will open the magnificent new Music Hall in Fair Park. Evelyn Keyes and Don Ameche star in this nostalgic revival of Vincent Youmans' classic musical comedy. A memorable score includes such all-time favorites as "Tea for Two" and "I Want to be Happy."

"DAZZLING 30's REVUE"
A sentimental journey into the Broadway and Hollywood of the 30's. The fabulous Ink Spots with Virginia O'Brien, Cass Daley, Gene Bell, Vince Barnett, Sherri Robinson and Johnnie "Scat" Davis and his band. Lifting melodies, vaudeville routines and toe-tapping show-stoppers.

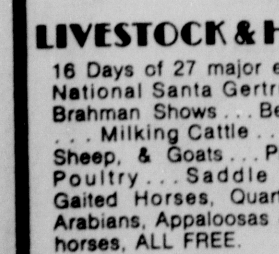

STREAMLINED DECADE
FDR... radio and railroads... "The Big Apple"... Dillinger... Gone With The Wind... The State Fair of Texas turns the clock back to present a captivating theme exhibit, featuring sights and sounds of the 30's. Authentic memorabilia, films and broadcast tapes recreate history.

30's FILM FESTIVAL
On the screen and in their private lives, the celluloid stars created a world of tinsel and glitter. Hollywood came into its own Golden Age in the Dazzling Thirties. Shirley Temple, Jean Harlow, Clark Gable and others reigned as American royalty.

COTTON BOWL SPECTACULARS
5 Big nights, free in the Cotton Bowl (with fireworks), beginning with "Parade of Champions" Band Contest, Mon., Oct. 9 at 8 p.m.; Dallas Symphony & The Overture of 1812, Thurs., Oct. 12 at 7 p.m.; East Texas Day Show, Mon., Oct. 16, at 8 p.m.; "La Fiesta Mexicana," Tues., Oct. 17, at 8 p.m.; and the Air Force Tattoo, Sun., Oct. 22, at 7:00 p.m.

LIVESTOCK & HORSE SHOWS
16 Days of 27 major events... National Santa Gertrudis and Brahman Shows... Beef Cattle... Milking Cattle... Swine, Sheep, & Goats... Pigeons & Poultry... Saddle Horses, Gaited Horses, Quarterhorses, Arabians, Appaloosas & Painted horses. ALL FREE.
